

International Resident Membership

Available to orthopaedic surgeons enrolled in an approved residency or fellowship program outside of the United States or Canada. Membership includes reduced registration for the AAOS Annual Meeting, access to members-only areas of the AAOS website, and resident member pricing on products and courses.

Requirements

Enrolled in an approved international residency or fellowship program.

Application process

The membership application can be downloaded and submitted via fax. The application is processed within 24 business hours of receipt.

Recruitment period

February through December 1st each year.

Dues & membership cycle

Dues are U.S. $200. Membership year begins April 1 and continues through March 31 of the following year.