All exhibitors, presenters, and attendees will be required to wear their AAOS official badges for admission to the Exhibit Hall. Presentations are open to all attendees. Companies may not charge a fee to attendees. AAOS attendee information is not provided to sponsors.

CME Accreditation

AAOS does not provide Continuing Medical Education (CME) accreditation for exhibitor educational presentations. Exhibitors are not allowed to offer CME credits for Innovation Theater presentations.

Lead Retrieval

Exhibitors are not allowed to scan and capture AAOS badge bar code data at their Innovation Theater presentations.

Publicity and Advertising

The AAOS is not responsible for unsatisfactory attendance and/or marketing of the Innovation Theater presentations. It is the responsibility of the presenting company to market this event. Advance marketing is critical to attracting the appropriate audience.

Approval of Promotional Materials

All promotional materials (including announcements, invitations, emails, websites, social media posts, advertisements, and flyers) promoting a company's Innovation Theater presentations be approved by AAOS prior to printing and/or distribution. Final versions of materials should be submitted via the Advertising Approval Request form. While AAOS will make every effort to grant approvals in a timely fashion, please allow a minimum of five (5) business days for approval.

Guidelines for Promotional Materials

a. AAOS does not endorse nor consider any Innovation Theater presentation part of the official program. The following statement must appear on any promotional material:

“This Innovation Theater presentation is a promotional activity and is not approved for continuing medical education credit. The content of this presentation and the opinions expressed by presenters are those of the “Presenting Company’s Name” or presenters and do not represent an endorsement, nor imply that the products have been evaluated or approved by the AAOS.”

b. The use of the name, insignia, logo, logotype or other identifying marks of the American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons/ American Association of Orthopaedic Surgeons, other than the approved exhibitor graphic, is never to be used in signs, advertising or promotions in any media or on descriptive product literature.

c. Any inclusion of “AAOS” or “American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons” requires written approval from AAOS.

d. Wording such as “presented in conjunction with,” “preceding”, “prior”, during, or “after” the AAOS Annual Meeting is not allowed. The only exception is that presenting companies may reference the AAOS Annual Meeting in a format like:

[Innovation Theater Presentations Title] presented by [Company Name], [Date, Time] located in [Location] at AAOS 2025.

e. These rules apply to promotional materials developed for use before, during, and after the AAOS Annual Meeting. Please refer to the Publicity and Advertising Guidelines for more details.

Promotional Materials Distribution Guidelines

Except for distribution from the approved AAOS Orthopaedist's Bag, AAOS' onsite newspaper or within the exhibitor's allotted exhibit space or Innovation Theater, the distribution of handbills, fliers, or other literature within the San Diego Convention Center, AAOS official hotels, or other venues are prohibited. Order forms for inclusion of promotional materials in the official AAOS Orthopaedist's Bag or the AAOS Annual Meeting pre-registration list order forms are available on the Promotional Opportunities web page.

The materials presented and distributed in the Innovation Theater should be product-focused, promotional in nature and conducted in accordance with all applicable FDA regulations and other established standards and codes.

Presenters/Speakers

All speakers/presenters for Innovation Theater presentation must be registered for AAOS 2025 and must wear their meeting badge to be admitted into the Exhibit Hall. The company coordinating the Innovation Theater presentation is responsible for ensuring that all speakers/presenters are appropriately badged. Physician presenters are required to verbally disclose to the audience their relationship with the company/product.

Product Demonstrations

Live demonstrations for the purpose of demonstrating techniques that involve equipment, devices, or prescription pharmaceuticals are prohibited.

Ownership of Copyright for Content of Innovation Theater Presentations

Copyright of the content presented at the Innovation Theater shall be owned by the Innovation Theater presenter with all rights intact. The Innovation Theater presenter is responsible for obtaining copyright permissions and licenses for materials previously copyrighted that will be used as part of the Innovation Theater program.

Indemnification

Exhibitors that are assigned an Innovation Theater presentation at AAOS 2025 agree to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the AAOS, its employees, directors, agents, representatives, and any affiliated organizations against any and all claims, judgments, fees, demands, settlements and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) that arise as a result of the company's performance, or non-performance, of duties in this Agreement.

Terms and Conditions

As a condition for holding a presentation, each exhibitor, their agents, and employees shall agree to abide by all terms, policies, and guidelines as outlined in the Exhibit Prospectus in addition to the policies specifically cited for the Innovation Theater presentation.

Violation of Rules and Regulations

Innovation Theater presentations found to be in violation of AAOS guidelines or policies outlined above and in the Exhibit Prospectus shall be immediately discontinued and risk loss of priority points for the 2026 Annual Meeting or other action deemed appropriate by AAOS.
